Congressional Items—Valuable capture of Contravana Goods near Island No. 10.

Secretary Chase communicates to the Senite, in answer to a resolution, a statement of Edward Jordan, So icitor of the Treasury, relative to frauds in the New 1 ork Custom House, showing that frauds upon the revenue had been committed for at least six months, effected by a aking out false invoices, representing different descriptions and lower prices of goods than were really imported.

Wool is preparing to make a grand tour of fortifications, arsenals, and military depots in Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachuseits, New Hampshire, and Maine. His tour will commence next week, and he will visit the cities of Providence, Springfield, Worcester, Boston, Portsmouth, Portland and

New Haven, at each of which cities he will undoubtedly meet with that reception his distinguished military services so well merit. It is understood that the fortifications on the Atlantic will receive special attention from the General, and the degree of activity which he has of late infused into operations upon the fortifications of New York Harbor, will soon be observable in other portions of the Department of the East.

Rebel Items - Bum ored Federal Advance

Fort Monroe, Feb. 21. The Rehmond Enquirer of the 20th, says there are rumors of an advance of the Yankee army upon Middle Tennessee. Cannonading was heard on Wednesday last in front. There were also reports heard from the direction of Besck Grove, where Den. Ruford, with his brigade of Kentucky cavalry is stationed, to ward the blows that might descend in that direction. Gen. Forrest has crossed Duck River, north of Columbia, with cavalry and artitlery. The Texas Flag contains an account of an invasion of our (rebel) soil by Mexican banditti, who are stealing horses, cattle, &c. Capt. Benevide's company was attacked and all their horses stampeded. They also captured and hung Inador Vella, cniet justice of Leapetta county. About 500 M xioans have been organized for the purpose of plan ering on the frontier, and their acts are approved by the Mexican authorities. Serious and Bloody Conflict over the Boundary Question, between Califor-nia and Nevada

San Francisco, Feb. 21. A serious controversy is going on in Hovey Lake Valley over the boundary question be-tween California and Nevada, both sides claiming jurisdiction over the land in dispute. The California sheriff attempted to serve a civil process on the 15th inst., when the residents of the valley armed themselves and fired on the sheriff and his posse. Six of the sheriff's men were wounded. The sheriff then sent for reinforcements, and his assailants are also expecting reinforcements. Both parties are defiant, and, at last accounts, were fortifying themselves in log houses.

The Raising of the Charleston Block-ade—nebels mourning over the facts— An Inquiry to be Instituted.

Fortress Monroe, Feb. 23. The Richmond Weekly Enquirer of the 18th instant says:

The Southern Confederacy has lately been made the dupe of a notable imposition. It was said, printed, re-echoed and reverberated over the land, that on a certain night, our two iron clad vessels at Charleston, had sunk two, disabled one, and disposed of the rest of the blockading squadron off Charleston Harbor. And now we learn with pain, and certainty that no ship was sunk, none disabled, and in short no damage was done, to the blockading squadron, which consisting of wooden ships only, avoided a fight with our iron clads, and most judiciously, until they brought up iron clads of their own, which they immediately did. Further, we regret to say, that the British steamer Princess Royal, laden with the most precious cargo that ever entered Charleston, had been captured the night before by a federal gunboat that she was alongside of that gunboat within a mile and a half of the shore, that the naval authorities at Charleston were made aware of her capture, value and situation, and yet our victorious iron clads did not rescue her from that gunboat, but allowed her % be taken out to sea. We would rather praise than censure, but the truth must be following was agreed to: That the debate be terminated at one o'clock to-morrow; one hour be devoted to voting on the amendments, without debate, then the bill voted on without further preliminaries. Mr. Stevens spoke in favor.

Mr. Vallandigham denounced the N. World as an abolition paper in disguise. Ben. Wood stated that the World did n't express the sentiments of the Democrats of

New York. Mr. Stevens said 'hat one great want of success was suffering the Breckinridge Democrats to lead our armies. When Gen. McClellan was at Yorktown, he was promptly ordered to attack the enemy and break his lines; he did not obey the order. When ordered to send troops to, aid Gen.

Pope he stood idle 11 days before he started, and then at a snail's pace. He sent troops under Generals who never reached the battle ground. Gen. Porter was one of them, and was justly dismissed from the army for causing a defeat. Gen. McClellan, reinstated, was ordered to pursue the enemy invading Maryland. He had one hundred and twenty thousand troops, and moved at the rapid rate of six miles a day till he got up with them. Antietam was but a quasi victory, and while in sight of the rebel army he suffered the enemy to cross into Virg.nia, taking the last man, wagon and ambulance with him; and shortly after, when ordered by the Commander-in-Chief to pursue the enemy, he hesitated three weeks, then took the South Mountain path .-There were four distinct instances of disobedience of orders.

Mr. Stevens desired to read a letter from Gen. Scott to Simon Cameron. Mr. Mallory inquired where Mr. Stevens procured the letter.

Mr. Stevens replied that it was a copy from It was read, as follows:

Headquarters Army, Washington, Oct. 4, 1861. § Hon. Simon Cameron, Sec'y of War: Sir-You are, 1 believe, aware that hailed the arrival of Major General McClellan as an event of happy consequence to the country and army. Indeed, if I did not call for him, I heartily approved the suggestion, and gave him the most cordial reception and support. He, however, had hardly entered upon cate directly with the President and communimembers of the Cabinet, he in a few days forgot that he had any intermediate, and has now long prided himself upon treating me with uniform neglect, running into disobedience of smaller matters-neglects, though, in themselves grave military offenses. I need not speak in the face of the following. To suppress an irregularity more conspicuous in Maj. General McClellan than in any other officer, I publish the following: . GENERAL ORDER NO. 17. Headquarters Army, Washington, Sept. 16, 1861.

There are irregularities in the correspondence of the army, which needs prompt correction. It is highly important that jun or officers on duty be not permitted to correspond with the General-in-Chief or any other commander, on current official business, except through intermediate commanders, and the same rule applies to correspondence with the President ditect, or with him through the War

Department, unless it be the special invitation or request of the President. By Command of LT. GENERAL SCOTT.

Ed. Townsend, Adjt. General.

With this order fresh in his memory, McClellan addressed two important communications to the Secretary, on respectively the 19th and 20th of the same mouth, over my head, and how many since to the Secretary, and even to the President direct, I have not inquired, but many I no doubt, besides daily oral communications with the same high functionaries. All without my knowledge.

Second. To cancel another class of grave neglects, I caused the same day to be addressed to Gen. McClellan the following

GERERAL ORDER. Headquarters Army, Waslington, Solt 16, 1861.
To Maj. Gen. McClellan, Commanding Department of the Potomac:—The enmmanding general of the Army of the Potomac will cause the position, state and number of the troops under him to be reported a once to the General Headquarters, by divisions, brigades and independent regiments or detachments, which report will be followed by reports of new troops as they arrive, with the dispositions made of them, together with all material changes which my take place in the army.

By order Lt. Gen Scott. E. D. Townsend, A. A. G. Eighteen days have now elapsed, and not the lightest respect has been shown to either of these orders by Gen. McClellan. Perhaps he will say in respect to the latter, it has been difficult for him to procure exact returns of divisions, brigades, etc. No doubt ; but why not have given me proximate returns, such as he so e gerly furnished the President and certain Secretaries. Has, then, a senior no corrective power over jumor officer in case of such neglect and dis obedience? The remedy by arrest and trial before a court-martial would probably soon cure the evil; but it has been feared a conflict of authority near the head of the army would be highly encouraging to enemies, and depressing to friends, of the Union. Hence, my long forbearance and continuing. Though but uominally in duty, I shall try to hold out till the arrival of Gen. Halleck when, as his presence will give me increase confidence in the safety of the Union, and beby read ... on waply to use the saddle or wals. paralysis in the back, I shall definitively retire from the army. I have the honor to remain,

It was in the nospital, where the ga lant Hooker rested, that I learned the history of those my thie d words so often seen and so little understood, "S. T.—1860—X." Anythen, alleviating the sufferings and saving any lives of our sodiers, is a national blessing. I wane seed some astondiers, is a national bles ing. I with esed some astonishing results from this article.

It is well known that the effect of burnt gampewder and excatement is thirst, which added to the loss of prood in the wounded, creates the necessity of a reviving stimu ant. In this particular nospital, the thysicians were allowing their patients to arink Printation Bitters, otherwise called S. I'—1850—X and authough the wounded are most numerous here—this division having openes the fight at five in the morning—the men were mostly composed, and there was very little fainting. The article acts upon the stomach and here is dy, and without subsequent steeperying reaction. It originated in the West ladies, composed of the elebrated Calisay a Bark, koots, Herbs, &c.; all prepared in St. Croix Rua—the S. T.—18 30—X being a secret ingredient, not yet revealed to the public. It is principally recommended for want of appetite, disorders liver, interemittent fevers, stomache difficulties, &c. I understand it was somewhat known in the Southern States previous to the war, and it appears an agent of States previous to the war, and it appears an agent of Jefferson Davis recently applied to the proprietors for the privilege to make it for ho pital purposes auring the war, to which they made the following reply:

New York, Jan. 16, 1862.

Agent of, &c.:

Dear Sir,—In reply to your communication, offering us "Fifty thou and dollars for the recipe and right to make the Plantation Bitters for your hospital purposes during the war," we beg to say, your price is a literal one, considering it would cost us nothing to comply, and that otherwise we can derive no revenue from the Southern States; but, sir, our duties to our government and our ide is of consistency would not allow us to entertain it, although it might please us to assuage the sufferings of your misguided followers.

We remain,

Very Respectfully yours,

P. H. Dhake & CO.

These gentlemen give the history of certain ingredients of their article for over two hundred years—showing that through all changes of the medical profession and its practitioners, strength, composure and cheerfulness have been derived from these sources. Dr. Woods, in the Washington Hospitals, informed me thot one patient was fast sinking and crazy, and had not alept an hour for two weeks, until the Plantation Bitters came to his knowledge, when one day's trial gave him a night's rest, and he was now fast recovering. I am surprised our government has not equalled Jefferson Dayis in energy, and adopted this invaluable article in all our hospitals. The weak soldiers clug to it like a brother. As a lay member, I can bear witness it is "goo't to take," and affords more energy and life than anything I ever tried. Buccess to the Flantation Bitters. Bitters.

Leading Farmers (among others, Gov. Holbrook) in the South pa t of the State, where the patent was introduced last year, testify to the superiority of this process of purifying Maple Sugar and Molasses over every of er. The Sugar made by it is as white and as pure as can be made by any other process, retaining its cool qualities for m by years. It is also excellent for cooking purp see, being free from that unpressant flavor common toold Maple Sugar.

Every Farmer who is engaged in the manufacture of sugar a ould use this process. It is warranted to give per see satisfaction.
